Age Limit Raised By Marine Corps

An expanded age limit for entering the Marine Corps six month reserve training program has been authorized, it was announced today.

Previously the program was closed to men over 21 years of age, but the age limit was extended to include those up to 26 years of age.

Major R. J. Andersen, Com-Communication Company, USMCR, located on Terminal Island made the disclosure today, pointing out the age restriction change will not effect the length of the course. Major Andersen added "an individual's age upon enlistment is a determining factor in the amount of time which must be spent in the Ready Reserve".

Jaycees Drive Gets Off to a Flying Start

The Torrance Jaycees are off to a flying start with their membership drive.

An indoctrination of new members was held at a rally at the Torrance armory Sunday, with Marvin Goettsch, past president of the Torrance club, filling in the new members on the JC activities.

Mayor Albert Isen, himself a new associate member of the Torrance JC's, told about the past work and projects of the local organization and why he was proud to be accepted as a member.

Lt. Geoffrey Yelland, of Australia, representing the Australian government by his assignment to the local National Guard unit, stated that he was joining the Jaycee organization so that he may see what makes Torrance such a well-known community. Upon his return to Australia in October he will transfer from the Torrance club to his local home town Jaycee organization in Australia.

Ten new members will be installed in the club on February 13 at the Palms restaurant in Torrance.
